November 26th, 2018 - Stephen Waddams argues that it is an over simplification to insist upon too sharp a distinction between the concepts of principle and policy in contract law Each has incorporated elements of the other enabling English contract law to change over time while maintaining a high degree of stability and predictability

Principle and Policy in Contract Law eBook by Stephen

January 10th, 2019 - The influence of policy has been frequent in contract law but Stephen Waddams argues that an unmediated appeal to non legal sources of policy has been constrained by the need to formulate generalised propositions recognised as legal principles This interrelation of principle and policy has played an important role in enabling an uncodified system to hold a middle course between a rigid formalism on the one hand and an unconstrained instrumentalism on the other
